

DOWNTOWN BERKLEY

SHOPPING & DINING GUIDE

ECLECTIC, QUIRKY, AND MID-CENTURY COOL

Berkley has built on its eclectic, mid-century aesthetic with a wide variety of locally owned shops. They range from women's clothing and accessories, Irish goods, Michigan-made and a designer eyeglass store to bridal, tailoring/alterations, and custom clothing designs. You can find hand-crafted goods as well — whether it's jewelry, violins, or a piece of pottery.

Love making it yourself? We've got a knitting shop and an art studio, too!

Home to 47 restaurants and food-related businesses, Berkley's downtown has a selection of establishments that are widely diverse. Whether you're looking for craft beers, Piedmontese Beef burgers, fresh-from-the-oven pizza, homemade perogies, gluten-free pastries, mouth-watering cannoli, or the best breakfast and lunch around, we've got a spread waiting for you.
